

THE HAMLIN HERALD

IN 31ST YEAR—EVERY WEEK SINCE 1905.

HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1936.

NUMBER 15.

COUNTRY THAWS OUT OF COLD STORAGE

Monday was the most ideal day of 1936. Warm and balmy, and birds began to sing and flit here and there—it looked like spring was here—the Ground Hog came out on his day, February 2, and saw his black shadow, and dodged back into his den, to sleep 40 more days. He was wise too.

Beginning with sundown Monday, however, the icy chill of the north again secured a grip on the nation and Tuesday morning the temperature was down below 20. Wednesday morning it was still colder—but this Thursday, the thaw is starting and it now appears again that relief will come by Friday.

Sub freezing weather for more than a day or two is very unusual in this part of Texas.

DEATH CLAIMS W. R. ADAMS

AT HIS PLASTERCO HOME

Last Friday, W. R. Adams, of the Plasterco community, was buried in the Afton Cemetery, near Hiltson. He passed away at 5:45 Wednesday January 29, at the age of 69 years, 4 months and 20 days.

Mr. Adams had lived at the Plaster Mills for a number of years, and had continued his labors faithfully. He was an old timer in every respect and admired and appreciated by all those about him. A wife and three children survive. The children are Floyd Adams, of Maywood, California; Jim Adams, of Tulia, Texas, and Mrs. Jim Peel, of Rotan. All of the children were present for the funeral.

Mr. Adams was a member of the Baptist Church, and the local pastor, Rev. Mathis, conducted the funeral at 2:00 P. M. Friday.

The Barrow Funeral Directors had charge of the body and interment was in the Afton Cemetery.

Miss Mary Boyd has accepted a position in the Primary Department of the Ft. Stockton school. She has been there for about two weeks. She had taught in the Hamlin grade school for two terms.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wilhite of Harlingen, spent the past week-end with Mrs. Wilhite's parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. S. Magee.

GOLF CLUB ACTIVE FOR PERMANENT CLUB BUILDING

Due to the fact that this is Centennial year, and the City of Hamlin does not have a City Park or Municipal enterprise of any kind, we the undersigned members of the Hamlin Lake View Golf Club do hereby pledge ourselves to pay three dollars $3.00 dues per month for a period of ten months to be paid in advance, every month, starting February 1, 1936.

We do this with the understanding that this is to be used to buy a house, to be placed on our course, as permanent property.

A new mower and a weed burner and also an experienced keeper of 15 years of experience, who is also an instructor.

Anyone playing this course who is not a member or whose membership is not in good standing shall pay 50c green fees week days and Sundays.

Starting Feb. 15, 1936, all inactive memberships will be cancelled and membership fees will be raised to all persons.

At present we have 40 paid up members.

CRIPITURAL DEBATE AT NEINDA ALL NEXT WEEK

Two ministers, Rev. L. S. Ballard, of Ennis, Texas, and Rev. Logan Buchanan, of Abilene Christian College, will begin a Five-Day and Night debate at the Neinda Baptist Church on various scriptural subjects, starting next Monday night.

The Herald is instructed to say that these men will each use one hour a day on the subject under discussion. It is understood the first debate is Monday night and the discussion will be at eleven A. M. and 7:00 P. M.

Fred Carpenter, auditor for the M. T. York Stores, happened to a very unusual accident one cold night last week. It seems he was assisting in filling a bottle with hot water and the bottom cracked out and one of his feet was severely scalded. As a result Fred has not been able to be at his place of business since.

MRS. J. R. RIMMER DIED MONDAY

Mrs. John R. Rimmer passed away at her home on Hope Avenue, at 6:05 P. M. Monday, February 3, after a short illness.

Mrs. Rimmer had been in very poor health for some time, and her resistance power had been greatly weakened. At the time of her death she had reached the age of 65 years, 11 months and 29 days. Her 66th birthday would have been Tuesday, Feb. 4, 1936.

Mrs. Rimmer was born on February 4, 1870, near Roanoke, in the state of Alabama. Her maiden name was Anna Stitt. At the age of 12 years, in 1882, she came with her parents to Mexia, Texas, and was united in marriage to John R. Rimmer in 1890. In 1896 the family came to Fisher County and settled on a farm just west of where Hamlin now stands. This was their home till a few years ago, when she and her husband moved into Hamlin and made their home with a daughter, Mrs. Mart Farrow, on Hope Avenue.

Mrs. Rimmer was the mother of six children, two of whom, preceded her in death. She is mourned by her husband and four children: John R. Rimmer, Jr. and Mrs. Mart Farrow, of Hamlin; Miss Onida Rimmer, of Wichita Falls, and Lawrence Rimmer of Hamlin. All of the children were present when death came.

In early girlhood, the deceased was converted to the Christian faith and joined the Presbyterian church, and after that church organization disbanded in Hamlin she united with the Methodist Church. She was a faithful member of a Sunday school class and the love and esteem each of the members of her class bore for her was shown by the floral tribute they bore for themselves and others in the funeral procession.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Church Tuesday afternoon, by the pastor, Rev. Longino, after which the body was placed to rest in the Afton Cemetery, near Hiltson, by the Barrow Funeral Directors.

Mrs. Rimmer was a faithful companion and a devoted mother. She led a quiet life, and those nearest her learned to admire her for her fine traits of womanhood.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Newsome, of Stamford, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burtner, of Goldthwaite, were guests Sunday in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Taylor. Mrs. Newsome is a sister and Mrs. Burtner is a niece of Mrs. Taylor.

L. F. Fannin and wife and son, of Odell, were in Hamlin Monday enjoying the howdying with old friends. While here he planked down a bright new dollar bill to renew his Herald another year. Mr. Fannin is one of the old time section foremen on the Santa Fe and the old Orient.

ROTARY CLUB HOST TO CITY OFFICIALS WED.

Wednesday the Hamlin Rotary Club presented an "august" assembly at their weekly luncheon hour. They had a number of distinguished guests, most of whom were city "Dads." We say "dads" because the men who steer a little city like Hamlin through the troubled water of this age are some "fathers."

Looking about the tables we located the magnanimous Mayor, the Hon. Joe Culbertson, and by his side the jovial red-faced Irishman, B. L. Jones, a member of the Council. A little farther down the line of eating we located another dignitary, the serious financial head of the F. & M. Bank, J. W. Ezell, another member of the Council; over on the other side of the table sat another Council member, deep in thought as if he was voting on an ordinance, this was Clyde Wilson. If we are not mistaken the only Rotarian member of the Council is H. O. Cassle. He was "introduced" as if he was a guest—he at once said he thought it was time for the Council to get a raise. Even two law were present. The gentle and smiling countenance of Jack Miles, City Marshal, and near by was his right-hand man, Elmer Brewer, assistant police, both laws apparently were hearing nothing, seeing nothing, but knowing everything. All the old city boys had a good time, hobnobbing with the Rotarians and other fellows who happened to be guests too.

Perhaps the most important official in Hamlin, and he was present, was J. B. (Burns) Eakin, City Secretary. The man who keeps the records, who takes the money if you want to pay your taxes, the fellow who gets so much of the general "cussing," well, for a time he enjoyed the eats and the fellowship.

One of the other guests at the Club was Dr. Aubrey Stephenson, teacher of Government in Simmons University. He was over to look after his business property in Hamlin and to visit his brother-in-law, Rev. J. Henry Littleton. Mr. Stephenson listened to the talk on taxes by Tate May, who directed the program, and when Stephenson was introduced he had a smile al over his face, when he said he had paid every cent of tax his property owed the City, the School and the County. Not everyone there could say that by a jug full.

Mr. May mentioned many things that Hamlin should attempt to make the city better, cleaner, and better known. That meant he talked on water, cleaning-up, streets, lighting, street-marking, house numbering, painting, building, repairing, and perhaps other things—but Tate never once proposed a loan to anybody.

Mayor Culbertson made a rejoinder and said it takes a lot more than talk to do things. He intimated that if you start through a swamp one must move a lot of snags, trash, go deep and pull hard to get anywhere. The Mayor is a man of action if it can be done. He said its very easy to tell what should be done, but that's no good unless it is fol-

CURRENT SITUATIONS INTERESTINGLY DISCUSSED (By Dr. W. M. PEARCE, of Lubbock, Texas)

Beginning Sunday night at 7:30 Dr. Pearce is presenting such topics as, "Developing the Internal Resources," as seen in connection with man's personal responsibilities.

"Man's Duty to Himself," also "His Duty to the Public," "One's Liberties and Responsibilities," etc. His entire series of discussions are built around such lives, and timely subjects on these.

Dr. Pearce will preach Sunday Evening at 7:30, at which time he will lay his foundations for the other messages that follow each evening during the week. The discussions are open to any one who wants to study the Moral Questions and Responsibilities confronting this generation. Credit may be had from this course on Standard Work in the Sunday School Educational Program.

Special music and a good choir of singers will have charge of the music Sunday at the evening service. This, with Dr. Pearce's initial message, will make it well worth your while to be on hand.

Communion will be observed at the Sunday A. M. service. Many of our members who cannot attend services regularly enjoy being present for communion. May we not see that they have a way to get to and from the Church Sunday. Bring a friend won't you? The Sunday School and Leagues are held at their usual hours—please be on time for the beginning.

The old adage: "Make Hay While the Sun Shines" may be out of date but it still gets results for those who observe its admonition. Those hoping to forge ahead in character building will find the services of next week a real means of inspiration. Give yourself a boost worth while.

LEGION MEN REGISTERING ALL EX-SERVICE MEN

In Hamlin the American Legion members are seeing to it that all Ex-Service men are looked after, as regarding their applications for their Baby Bonds.

V. W. Day, an Ex-Service man who has endured great pain and suffering as a result of being in the World War, is acting as chief adviser and stenographer for the men in making their application.

THE F. & NATIONAL BANK

FURNISHING THE DESK

For a number of days the Bank lobby has been a very busy place, reminding one of enlistment day. The old boys come in and fill out their applications, impress their finger prints, and go away to await to see if they have done all that is required to make sure proof of their right to get the settlement on their Service Compensation. Mr. Day suggests that the men bring their discharge papers, the "pink slip" and everything when they visit his desk. The more proof furnished, the more certain there will be no delay. It is a great undertaking, but the recent Bonus Act is proving that things can go fast when there are millions and billions coming.

Mr. Day requests that everybody who knows of an ex-service man to tell them about service rendered at the F. & M. Bank, and to get in and attend to this at once, as it will save time and worry.

BACK IN BUSINESS

While "browsing" around this week, we located our old friend, T. P. Milsap and son, James Thomas, in business on South Central Avenue. We recall that Mr. Milsap for years operated a store at Neinda, then later in Hamlin and the past few years he again retired. He is one of Jones County's pioneers — and that means he has lots of "stickability."

TOM HUNTER GETS WIN ON LIBEL SUIT

WICHITA FALLS, Texas, Feb. 4. —Finding that charges made in the Houston Post editorial had libeled Tom F. Hunter during the gubernatorial race in 1934, a Wichita County jury returned a verdict here Feb. 1 awarding Hunter $15,000 damages against the Houston Printing Company for two editorials which were published in the Houston Post two years ago.

The jury found that certain statements in the editorials were "false and libelous" and did not constitute a "fair and reasonable comment" upon Hunter's platform and speeches.

Mr. Hunter's attorneys took particular exception to the charges that he had "dictatorial ambitions," that he "would wreck the existing form of government as prescribed by the constitution" and that he "dangled a blended tax before the people as a panacea for all our ills."

Seeking to justify publication of the editorials the Post's attorneys brought to Wichita Falls editors and other newspaper writers from Amarillo, Dallas, Houston and other Texas cities. The staff of defense attorneys was headed by Lieutenant Governor Walter Woodul.

In answering the statements that the editorials had been partially based upon his plan for a governor's cabinet, Mr. Hunter explained from the witness stand that such a system had been used in the Federal government since it was founded and had been later adopted by several states.

Dear Mr. Pope:

I am sending you one bat wing for the Herald. I think you can make the paper fly down here with one wing for a while. We are having quite a spell of damp cool weather down here. I guess it is plenty cold up there to kill hogs.

Tell all my old friends "hello" and keep a whole lot for yourself.

Your friend,

W. A. HULING.

HERE'S ANOTHER:

Dear Mr. Pope:

I am sending you another one dollar bill to renew my Herald for another year. If this bill cackles don't get excited. It is chicken money. Well, we are having same pretty bad weather here. The snow is about 7 inches deep and don't look like it would melt in a week.

Wishing all my friends a happy and prosperous year.

Your friend,

J. D. ZACHARY,

Ropesville, Texas.

ONE FROM CALIFORNIA:

Shafter, Calif., Jan. 19, 1936.

Dear Mr. Pope:

I have been thinking for some time I would write you to send me the Hamlin Herald. I do not know what the subscription price is, so I am sending you one dollar ($1.00).

We have been living in California for more than a year and think it is a grand place. Sometimes we get lonesome for Hamlin and our relatives and friends back there.

They raise onions, potatoes, cotton and fruit and of course, all kinds of vegetables. The onions are already planted and looking pretty and in a few weeks there will be a lot of potatoes in the ground. By the time the onion harvest is over the potatoes will be ready and by the time the potato harvest is over the fruit comes on and then the cotton.

We can look almost in any direction and see mountains. There is snow on the mountains now. We live in the San Joaquin Valley and it seldom snows in this valley.

Leroy and I are working in a grocery store in Shafter.

We see lots of Texas and Oklahoma people here.

Send us the next issue of the Herald, please.

Yours sincerely,

JOHN DILLINGHAM,

Box 364, Shafter, California.

BETTER BUSINESS

LESS PROFITS is the cry among the opponents of F.D.R. The idea of big profits lingers in the minds of many big business men. The New Deal has produced better business and the New Deal is going to see to it—and they should—that this country shall never again become so top-heavy with profit. If big profits continue from generation to generation, it means unbalanced power, less pay or no pay for the producer and finally another killing depression. We are in a "war-to-the-hilt" and unless the rank and file of America back up the president and his congress, the people will be pushed further back by the "big profits crowd."

Texans to Spend Millions in 1936 As Host to U.S.A.

Southwest Empire's Fete of Independence to Center in Dallas

Dallas, Texas.—In 1936 the State of Texas will celebrate the passage of a century since her pioneer settlers won freedom from Mexican rule and established the Republic of Texas, which later became a state.

Throughout the Lone Star State there will be celebrations at places of historic and patriotic interest. The cities and towns which were battle scenes in the Texas Revolution, and communities founded during the exploration and colonization preceding the Republic, will commemorate progress of the only state that existed as an independent republic, prior to its entrance to the Union.

Under the six flags that have flown over Texas soil—those of France, Spain, Mexico, Republic of Texas, the Confederacy and the United States—since 1519, there has been written by men and women, in thought and action, a saga that is truly mighty.

Highlights of the gala and festive celebrations of the Centennial Year will be an event that is in its own right an historic one. It is the Texas Centennial Exposition to open in Dallas on June 6 and continue until November 29.

The Texas celebration represents an investment of more than $20,000,000. The City of Dallas pledged $8,000,000 in cash and property and the $4,000,000 plant of the State Fair of Texas, located within her city limits, will be used as the Exposition grounds. Dallas also pledged $5,500,000 in cash for building her share of the enterprise, $3,500,000 of which was raised by a municipal bond issue and $2,000,000 bonds sold by the Texas Centennial Central Exposition Corporation, comprised of Dallas citizens.

The Texas Legislature appropriated $3,000,000 and the United States Government a like sum.

The Dallas Exposition grounds consist of approximately 200 acres. Exposition buildings and their cost follow:

Texas Hall of State, $1,200,000; Hall of Fine Arts, $550,000; Hall of Varied Industries, Electricity and Communications, $440,000; Hall of Transportation, $440,000; Hall of Livestock and Animal Husbandry, $300,000; United States Building, $325,000; Hall of Natural History, $250,000; Rural Boys' and Girls' Dormitory, $250,000; Hall of Foods and Beverages, $230,000; Hall of Aquatic Life, $180,000; Hall of Agriculture, $170,000; Hall of Domestic Arts, $75,000; Hall of Horticulture, $75,000; Band Shell and Pavilion, $50,000; Hall of Negro Life and Culture, $50,000; Radio, Police, Fire Station, Texas Ranger Headquarters and Hospital, $40,000.

Cost of landscaping and paving is estimated at $675,000. In addition, a half-million dollars worth of utility equipment and $350,000 in electrical equipment will be installed.

A million dollar sports plant will enable the Exposition to handle sporting events of all kinds. The grounds already have a $400,000 stadium seating 46,000 people, a horse race track and grandstand costing $300,000 and indoor boxing and wrestling arena costing $100,000 and seating 6,000 persons, a polo field, straightaway and oval running tracks and tracks suitable for automobile or motorcycle races. A standard-sized swimming pool will be constructed for aquatic events.

Main entrance of the Exposition grounds will face the Esplanade of State, 300x1,000 feet, leading to the Texas Hall of State. The esplanade's center will be a reflecting basin 200x700 feet with concealed lighting effects flashing from the pool to adjacent buildings.

The Texas Hall of State, built of native granite, will be 488x258 feet. An 80-foot high center will house the Niche of Heroes, dedicated to illustrious figures of Texas history. The front wings will be devoted to regional rooms, a replica of a Texas mission representing the Hall of 1936. An auditorium in the basement will be used for convention purposes.

Expo's Manager

William A. Webb, above, of Dallas, was named general manager of the Texas Centennial Exposition, which opens in Dallas June 6, because of his long experience in handling rush construction jobs.

A veteran railroader, one of Mr. Webb's greatest accomplishments was rebuilding and remodeling the great South Australia government-operated railroad, a $70,000,000 project. He was recommended for the task, which he finished in 1931, by the U. S. Department of State.

DEATH CLAIMS JOHN H. PAYNE

John H. Payne, a farmer on the Culbertson farms, passed away at the Stamford Sanitarium Wednesday, February 5, at 9:30 A. M.

The deceased was 65 years, 11 months and 18 days of age.

Mr. Payne was born in the state of Georgia, on February 18, 1870.

He had never married. He first stopped in Waxahachie, Texas, after coming to this state, and about 20 years ago he came with J. C. Culbertson to Jones County and had spent the entire time on the Culbertson farms east of Hamlin.

The deceased is survived by two brothers and two sisters, all of whom are in Alabama and Georgia. Also five nephews and four nieces survive. A brother, Hal Payne, died in Hamlin in January, 1933.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist Church in Hamlin at 2:30 P. M. Thursday, by the pastor, Rev. Henry Littleton.

The body was in charge of the Barrow Funeral Directors, and interment was in East Cemetery, Hamlin.

JEFFERSON'S TEN RULES

Ten rules of conduct given below are contributed to Thomas Jefferson. Whether they were actually formulated by the Sage of Monticello, or not, they contain much good advice in a few words.

1. Never put off today what you can do today.
2. Never trouble another for what you can do yourself.
3. Never spend money before you have earned it.
4. Never buy what you don't want because it is cheap.
5. Pride costs more than hunger, thirst and cold.
6. We seldom repent of eating too little.
7. Nothing is troublesome that we do willingly.
8. How much pain the evils have cost us that never have happened.
9. Take things always by the smooth handle.
10. When angry, count ten before you speak; when very angry, count to one hundred.

NATIONWIDE CONOCO PROGRAM BOOSTS TEXAS CENTENNIAL

"Attend the Texas Centennial Exposition! Visit Texas Scenic and Historical Shrines During 1936!"

Continental Oil Company, through its February newspaper advertisements, is inviting more than 25 million people living in 36 states and the District of Columbia to spend their vacations in the Lone Star state this year.

The first of this series of advertisements appears in today's Herald. It will also be reproduced in nearly 1,200 other newspapers, according to Wesley L. Nunn, Conoco advertising manager.

Today's advertisement includes an invitation to enjoy the Centennial while the second of the series, due to appear during the weeks to follow, calls attention to "famed San Jacinto" and the Centennial. The third and final advertisement of the Texas series, scheduled for the week of February 23, refers to "The Alamo—Texas Centennial highspot."

Readers are asked to make their journey to Texas ever more pleasurable by taking advantage of the free trip planning service of the Conoco Travel Bureau, Denver, Colo., largest organization of its type in America.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By Julian Capers, Jr.

Austin, Jan. 20.—The members of the legislature want to hold another special session right away. The large taxpayers and the business interests, particularly, don't want a session. The people generally are indifferent. The people who expect or hope to collect an old-age pension want the session to remove any doubt about there being money available to begin their payments July 1.

There remains a tremendous volume of investigation and checking work to be done, after Feb. 14, when the old age pension law becomes effective, before any payments can be made. Best estimates are that no payments can be made before July, and possibly the beginning date will be considerably later.

Liquor licenses and taxes probably will provide sufficient funds to pay maximum pensions to all entitled to them for several months after they start, provided present estimates are not too inaccurate.

There is probably no other public business that would justify calling a special session, if the pension problem can be worked out until the next regular session, in January, 1937.

This summarized the status of the special session matter over the week-end, at which time no definite decision had been reached by Gov. Allred.

Those close to the governor believe that he wants, if at all possible, to avoid the session. If it becomes necessary, in his judgment, to hold the session, he probably will call it as soon as possible, and get it out of the way before the political campaign opens up, so the legislators will not waste too much time with political "investigations" and other matters with political implications. They believe he fears possible calamity, if he should abandon the idea of a session now, and it later developed, between August and January, that a revenue session was imperative. A "lame duck" legislature, with many of its members already defeated for re-election, might pass a sales tax law—the last thing the governor wants.

Few Texans who have lived in our times have left behind them more useful or more enduring monuments to their public service than the late David E. Colp, of San Antonio, until recently chairman of the state park board. When Governor Pat Neff named him as first chairman of the board, Texas had but a single insignificant state park. Due largely to his enthusiasm and zeal, the system has grown into hundreds of thousands of acres, embracing hundreds of individual parks, many in a highly developed state. Colp retired as chairman of the board a few months ago, being succeeded by Wendell Mayes, Brownwood editor, but he continued his interest and his work in behalf of parks. Coming generations of Texans will enjoy the fruits of his labors, as the state settles up and open spaces are at a premium. The work he began will go on, but it was the vision of Colp which created the state park system in Texas, and his untiring work that made it a reality.

ART OF BEING KIND

IS FINE ART SAYS

CHANNING POLLOCK

The old-fashioned "art of being kind" is really a fine art, comments Channing Pollock, popular American playwright, in the current Rotarian Magazine, and, he suggests, the Yuletide season provides an appropriate time to give it study and practice.

"I remember one 25th of December that was simply made for me," he writes, "by a soft, strange voice at the other end of a telephone wire that said, 'I'm afraid you've got the wrong number, but Merry Christmas all the same.' And in reverse, I remember countless other voices on phones that implied very definitely that I had deliberately asked for a wrong number, and conspired with the operator to pick one whose owner was in the bath.

"It's so easy to smile and to be agreeable, and even to do the small kindly thing, that I'm a little puzzled that it isn't a more common habit. One reason, I suppose, is that courtesy requires a two-way street.

"I don't excuse, but I do sympathize with the man who quit giving his seat to women in crowded subways after the 15th woman had taken it without a word of thanks. But here my wonder is at those 15—those 15,000 women. Dying, they should be condemned to an eternity of swaying floors with an infinity of straps just out of reach.

"I find," he continues, "I have a definite weakness for the policeman I saw lugging the basket of an old Jewish woman through the traffic of Canal Street, and the busy man who writes a long and courteous letter to the utter stranger in quest of information, and the cigar or drug clerk who leaves his counter to instruct a non-paying visitor in the use of a dial telephone.

"I think life would be easier if more of us liked people. All kinds of people, under all kinds of conditions and handicaps. I think our heaviest burdens would be lighter, and our important problems less worrisome, if we didn't have to carry so many little loads of thoughtlessness, and have our minds and hearts troubled by so many trifling rubs.

"It's really quite easy to write a kind letter. It's easier still to say a kind word. Few of the things we have the opportunity of doing for other people really involve any very painful self-sacrifice. And the things of this sort we don't do sterilize our own souls, and harden our own paths. More than anything else in our journey through life, they rate us as first class, second class, or steerage."

FASCINATING FACTS

By LLOYD FRANKLIN

Another example of the fascinating facts behind common everyday things is provided by Glycerine. Discovered only a hundred and fifty years ago, this ingredient now enters into literally hundreds of household and industrial products and lends itself to a multitude of beneficial uses.

The well-known artist, Mr. Frank Hanley, has illustrated a few of these uses in industry and in your personal life. Glycerine is especially close to the average person's life because it is used so widely in medicines, foods and cosmetics—life, health and beauty!

Next to water, it is the liquid most extensively employed in medicines. Most syrups, flavorings and dozens of other prepared foods take advantage of glycerine's freshness and purity, and cooks are increasingly finding it helpful in the kitchen.

You can scarcely find any cosmetic—lotion, cream, perfume—that does not have recourse to the soothing powers of glycerine. There is certainly drama behind everyday products!

Society and Clubs

MRS. TUMLIN CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. Garland Tumlin was hostess to the Merry Matrons Club when she entertained Wednesday afternoon of the past week in the home of her mother, Mrs. John T. Day. The usual three tables of contract were in play with Mrs. B. L. Jones winning high score for the club members and Mrs. Weldon Griggs scoring high for guests. A salad plate with pudding and coffee was served.

Members present were Mmes. R. H. McCurdy, B. L. Jones, A. E. Pardue, John T. Day, W. F. Johnson, Milton Wilson, J. B. Eakin and John Ed Day. Guests were Mmes. Weldon Griggs, Maurice Smith and Dick Moore.

ENTERTAINED CLUB

In entertaining the Trece Senores Club in her home on Jackson Avenue, Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. F. D. Wells chose appointments suggestive of Valentine for the two tables of contract. The Valentine theme was repeated in the refreshment plate of heart shaped sandwiches, salads and Paradise Roll served at the tea hour.

Four games of contract were played with Mrs. B. W. Nobles holding the high score. Others playing were Mmes. Helian McBride, Clinton Barrow, Otis Hopper, Grogan Turner, J. E. Bury and Frank Williams.

MRS. FOWLER HOSTESS TO

BLUE BIRD CLUB

Mrs. Paul A. Fowler was hostess to the Blue Bird Club, entertaining in her home Tuesday afternoon at the regular club hour. Clever valentines marked places at the three tables appointed for contract. High score was won by Mrs. Elmer Feagan.

Following the games a salad plate with cake and coffee was passed to Mmes. J. P. Morgan, J. T. Byrum, Turner Bynum, R. H. McCurdy, Art Carmichael, Bob Low, Garland Tumlin, John Ed Day, M. T. Woodward, Elmer Feagan, Arche Pardue and Mrs. Holly Toler, of Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Donnell and daughters, Misses Marjorie and Patty, left Tuesday morning for a visit to California.

Lets Talk about Clothes

TEXAS STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN (CIA)

DENTON, Feb. 4.—The advent of February marks a turning point for fashions. Heretofore, when spring was two months off, only scattered glimpses of the approaching season were noted in the fashion world.

Now, these timid attempts toward brightening a winter wardrobe have blossomed into spring frocks, and regardless of what type of dresses the designers may show, they all seem to concentrate on the creation of flattering wearable clothes rather than on startling departures from the accepted modes.

Dresses, coats and suits for the coming spring season are to have individuality—but not in the extreme dictation by some past era. Every trick known to designers is being utilized toward becomingness and femininity.

Pleating, tucking, and shirring are used extensively, and of special importance on dark daytime frocks are the lingerie touches of lace, chiffon and organdy. Neckline are quite high, and much interest is concentrated on sleeves. The broad shoulder theme is being somewhat revived, and is much softer rather than severe and masculine in appearance.

Skirts for sports, street and dressy afternoon wear are scarcely a fraction shorter than last year (varying from 12 and 14 inches from the floor) and most of them are very slim and straight. This straight slim skirt silhouette is carried into the evening things, and although many dance dresses of very sheer fabrics have yards and yards of skirt, they appear to be only slightly bouffant.

For early spring, there are, of course, the black and white, navy and white, brown and white combinations. Black and white predominates for tailored and dressy daytime wear. Gray, a color that has been "high fashion" many seasons but never quite attained popularity, shows ever vindication of being among the chosen few.

MISS MARY SCOTT MARRIED

TO MR. J. M. ALEXANDER

Saturday night Rev. Henry Littleton answered a telephone call requesting him to remain up late for the purpose of marrying a couple. He promised. And after hours and hours, in fact after the midnight picture show, Mr. J. M. Alexander and Miss Mary Scott appeared at his door, and in the Baptist pastor's usual happy manner, he soon spoke the words that united the couple in wedlock.

Mrs. Alexander is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Scott, who reside just south of Hamlin and a very charming young woman. Mr. Alexander is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander of the Neinda community. Both of these young people were reared in this section of the county and they are favorites with all who know them. The date of their marriage was really Sunday, February 2, 1936.

THE ROSE SHOPPE

Call 70, for your tailoring needs.

There's a month of steady cold plus a Blizzard on your present Gas Bill!

Gas service statements being received now include the season's worst blizzard. In addition to this period of unusually severe weather there was not a single day from the middle of December to the middle of January when heat was not required. This is one reason statements covering this period are higher.

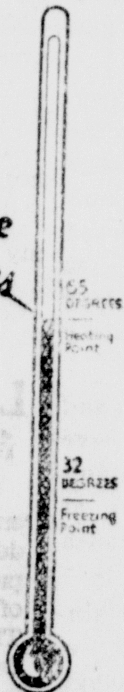

Another reason is the Christmas Holiday season. During this season extra gas was required for entertaining, extra cooking and for the comfort of house guests.

During this continued spell of steady cold weather your gas company has been alert to its responsibility of having sufficient gas at all times for every need. From the many hundreds of wells in the many fields where the supply originates, on along thousands of miles of pipe-line system are employees with years of experience in giving service and seeing that the gas supply to every home is adequate at all times.

So when you receive your statement this month, consider what you receive for the amount you pay for househeating, cooking and hot water service. Compare the healthful comfort, convenience, service and leisure hours you have bought with the price of anything else you purchase. You'll find that your gas service is the least expensive of anything you buy—and the greatest value.

Down where the
"Heating" Begins

When the temperature drops to 65 degrees or lower, heat is needed for comfort. During the past 40-day period, each day's mean temperature was well below 65 degrees, with some days far below freezing temperature. Please consider this when comparing your present gas bill with previous ones.

Milestones of American Genius

JOHN MARSHALL

JOHN MARSHALL was the fourth Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, but in the judicial annals of our land he undoubtedly stands first. At a time when the Republic was young and hesitant, in its early decades of self-government, his clear-cut decisions fortified the Constitution as the basis of our national life.

He was appointed to the highest judicial office in 1801, when the Supreme Court seemed to be one of the government agencies which was failing of its purpose. In thirty-four years of devoted work, his decisions, which have never been surpassed for clarity, brilliance and courage, gave form and substance to the Constitution and helped establish the Supreme Court as the bulwark of the American form of democratic government.

Marshall was born in 1755 of pioneer stock, the eldest of fifteen children in a family where money was scarce. His schooling was consequently irregular, though he managed to take law courses at the College of William and Mary. Endowed with an exceptionally fine legal mind, he soon achieved leadership in the Bar of Virginia.

He was called to fill many public offices, including that of Secretary of State under President John Adams, before he was designated to the Supreme Court. He died at the age of eighty, in 1835. The glory of his contribution to American history has not dimmed since.

Within a few days after his death, plans for a suitable memorial in front of the Capitol in Washington were begun, but they were not carried out until half a century later. The sum of $3,000 which lay forgotten in a Memorial Fund during the intervening years had grown to $30,000. Congress matched it with a similar amount and the unveiling of the impressive monument shown in the sketch took place on May 10, 1884.

Mr. Colbert Hobbs, from Hill Co., who formerly lived in McCaulley community, is visiting friends near Hamlin.

Those present at the home of Mr. Will Dennis Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rowland and sons, J. D. and Weldon; Mr. and Mrs. Arza Brown and son, Hoyle, of Hamlin; Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Rowland, and Mr. and Mrs. Finis Donally of Clyde.

A shower was given at the home of Mrs. L. Fielder, January 25, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bingham. Amid the many presents received by the recently wedded couple were TWO alarm clocks and THREE teakettles. We can picture Mrs. Bingham doing her daily housework—winding clocks and boiling water.

Friends of Norma Ruth Dennis are happy to hear of her recovery from the scarlet fever. Playmates in Plasterco School are expecting her back in school very soon.

Mrs. Mattie Green, from Rochester, is visiting her son, Mr. W. R. Green and family of Swedonia.

SAFeway PRESIDENT HAS A TAX TALK

The public always pays the bill of increased taxation regardless of whether the tax is concealed or direct, L. A. Warren, president of Safeway Stores, Inc., said in a statement issued last week on the present tax crisis.

"Specific taxes by themselves," Mr. Warren said, "may not appear burdensome, although in view of the unceasing effort to impose new taxes it should be remembered that the total tax burden is constantly absorbing a greater share of the national income."

"As a matter of fact it is estimated that the 1935 national tax bill will be in excess of 350 per cent above the 1913 level. The year previous the country's tax bill amounted to $9,500,000,000, whereas the national income totaled only $47,600,000,000. This means that taxes absorbed 20 per cent of the total national income."

"Even the most simple analysis will reveal to any thinking citizen that the individual consumer must, in the long run, pay the bill. It means that a constantly increasing share of the individual income will be inevitably absorbed by an ever-heavier tax-burden."

"Economic recovery, as a consequence, will be blocked, for in the final reckoning the prosperity of the nation is based on the prosperity of its individual citizens."

"It is false logic to expect any business to operate under an oppressive tax burden for if the tax is sufficiently heavy to erase all profit and substitute a loss, evil consequences, such as increased prices, unemployment, or a diminution of the tax base result, and as a consequence the consumer, as always, is forced to pay the tax bill in the form of a higher cost of living," Mr. Warren concluded.

THE HERALD takes the liberty of commenting on the above:

Mr. Warren should also remind his countrymen that since the date of 1913 "much water has run under the bridge." The days along in 1913 were strenuous times and the World War was the only thing that prevented a wide "depression." At that time the National debt was but about ONE billion and a quarter, but by the end of 1919 the national debt had jumped to 25 and one-half billion. Even when the "1930 depression started" the national debt had settled down at much better than 16 billion, and since 1930 this nation has been in a far worse WAR than it was in 1917, as far as money is concerned. The National debt is now better than 31 billion dollars. The only way to whittle down that burden is to pay it in some kind of taxes—we are still in war and we can not win it without money.

The American people can not be whipped with a few million dollars. They may demand that everybody who lives under the flag and everybody who visits under the American flag shall bear some small part of that increased tax, and that a limit be fixed as to how much money any individual or firm shall claim as profits. What Mr. Warren is getting at is—that he is not in favor of "unequal and unfair taxation."

McCAULEY 4-H CLUB NEWS

Hail. Hail. The gang was all there—and then some. The 4-H Club girls had a party at the home of Miss Era Mae Martin, Wednesday night, January 22.

People, and not all 4-H Club people from McCaulley, came from the north, south, east and west. There were fifteen club girls from McCaulley there, and each one was supposed to have invited one. The last count that we had as they came in the door was forty-nine, so somebody surely must have invited three or four.

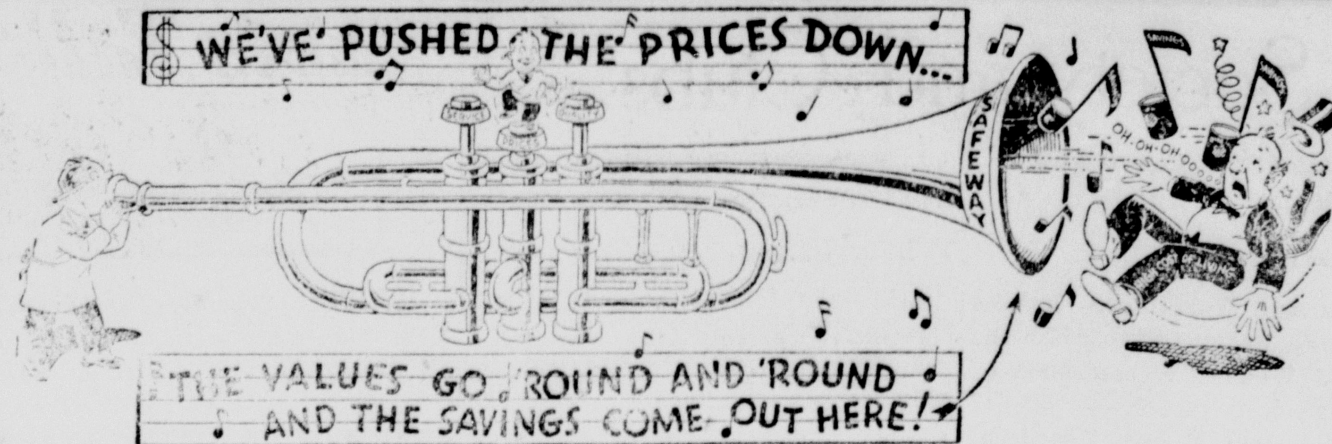

We intended to serve punch and cookies, but we knew we didn't have enough to go around, so we didn't serve anything. The next day at school, the 4-H Club Girls had punch and cookies with their lunch.

This was our first club entertainment of the year, and we think everyone had a swell time, even though some of them couldn't get in the house.

Since this one was such a big success, we hope to have another one in the near future.

Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Theodor's Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draught for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweets. Mrs. C. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Theodor's Black-Draught (powder) about thirteen years, taking it for biliousness. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I wanted a good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that."
